Foley Street

Mrs. Margaret Fagan, looks out of her window, from the last occupied flat in Foley Street, for the last time. She refused to be "Flushed-out" by the Corporation to some far off suburb. and remained in Foley Street until she was eventually given a flat nearby in the Inner City. In trying to intimidate her out, the city fathers turned off the water, drilled, sealed-up and demolished all round her, created roof leaks, and continued to collect the rent. Helped and encouraged by The Irish Civil Rights Action League, Mrs. Foley by her suffering, and ultimate victory has shown the people of Dublin how the fight for Civil Rights and win. We wish her luck in her new home.
